Students pursuing the Classical Civilizations major will study ancient history, archaeology, literature and culture. For double majors in Classical Languages and Classical Civilization, no more than two courses may be counted toward both majors.

Requirements (10 Courses):

- Coursework to complete one of the options below. The two options may not be combined.
  - Option 1: CLST 181S or 283 and 182S or 284
  - Option 2: Two courses in Greek or Latin below the 250-level
- Seven Classical Studies CLST courses at or above the 200-level in at least three of the following areas:
  - Literature in translation at or above the 200-level or in the original language at or above the 250-level (Greek and Latin independent studies below the 300-level do not satisfy this requirement)
  - Philosophy
  - Art and Archaeology
  - History
- CLST 480S Capstone Seminars in Classical Studies
- Senior Dossier

Note about Advanced Placement (AP) Credit:

Credit for LATIN 25 Introduction to Literature is earned through College Board Advanced Placement tests in Latin. Earning AP credit helps determine your starting point in Latin courses at Duke, but does not count toward the major.
