Why study the Classics?

◊ Amazing literature, foundational history, inspiring philosophy, breathtaking material remains

◊ Allows you to create a better tomorrow by first understanding the past

◊ Low student-to-professor ratio, thus lots of 1-on-1 engagement

◊ Over 70% of the English language derives from Greek or Latin, and many foreign languages are closely related, thus easy to learn

◊ Taking a semester in Greece or Rome, or going on a summer dig, are often life-changing experiences

◊ A special & cool kind of interest (antiquity!) that makes you stand out when applying for jobs or to grad school

Featured Courses for Fall 2018

CLST 144 Principles of Archaeology
CLST 208 Ancient Myth
CLST 299L Landscape Archaeology
CLST 316S Self-Knowledge & Wisdom
CLST 364 Ancient Science and Technology